

A RESOLUTION honoring 21c Museum Hotel and its owners, management, and staff for being voted the number one hotel in the United States and number six hotel in the world by the readers of Conde Nast Traveler magazine.

WHEREAS, 21c Museum Hotel was founded by philanthropists Laura Lee Brown and Steve Wilson in March 2006 to help revitalize the historic arts and theater district on Main Street in downtown Louisville; and

WHEREAS, 21c Museum Hotel is known as a modern epicenter for culture, activity, and artistic expression by combining unique and stunning contemporary art with authentic Southern hospitality; and

WHEREAS, 21c Museum Hotel offers live events, exhibitions, installations, and arts programming that are accessible and often free to the public; and

WHEREAS, 21c Museum Hotel has received numerous awards and accolades by many different national and international publications, most recently being voted the number one hotel in the United States and the number six hotel in the world by readers of Conde Nast Traveler magazine in their prestigious annual Readers' Choice Awards;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1 →Section 1. The House of Representatives does hereby recognize and honor 21c
2 Museum Hotel and its owners, management, and staff for being voted the number one
3 hotel in the United States and the number six hotel in the world by the readers of Conde
4 Nast Traveler magazine.

5 →Section 2. The House of Representatives commends 21c Museum Hotel and its 6 owners, management, and staff for playing a key role in revitalizing downtown Louisville
7 and raising the national and international profile of the city and the Commonwealth.

8 →Section 3. When the House of Representatives adjourns this day, it does so in 9 honor of 21c Museum Hotel.
